

Personality Development Grade- 1

TEACHER TRAINING MANUAL – THEME 1

Activity Name: “Face & Feel”

Objective:

- Help students recognize and name basic emotions.
- Build empathy and social awareness through observation and role play.
- Encourage healthy expression of feelings in a safe classroom environment.

How to Play

Set Up:

- Prepare Emotion Flashcards (happy, sad, angry, surprised, scared, excited).
- Create a “Feelings Corner” where students can see emotion posters and mirrors.

Step 1 – Emotion Introduction:

- Show each Emotion Flashcard.
- Say the name of the emotion and demonstrate the facial expression.
- Students copy your expression and repeat the emotion name aloud.

Step 2 – Guess the Emotion:

- Teacher or a student makes a facial expression without speaking.
- Others guess the emotion.
- Option: Add a matching body movement (e.g., stomping for anger, jumping for excitement).

Step 3 – Role Play Mini-Scenes:

- Give simple scenarios:
 - You lost your toy → sad face
 - You got a gift → happy face
 - You saw a spider → scared face
- Students act out with expressions and short lines (“Oh no!”, “Yay!”).

Step 4 – Mirror Match:

- Students look in a mirror and practice making different expressions.
- Encourage them to notice eyes, mouth, and posture changes.

Step 5 – Feelings & Sharing Circle:

- Students sit in a circle and share one time they felt a specific emotion.
- Teacher guides them to listen respectfully and connect with peers’ experiences.

Wrap-Up (2–3 min):

- Review all emotions learned.
- Quick “Emotion Speed Round” – flash a card, students instantly make the face.

How to Use in Class:

Use as a warm-up or social skills activity.

Integrate into storytelling ("How do you think the character feels?").

Reinforce through daily check-ins ("Show me your morning face!").

Materials:

1. Emotion Flashcards – with clear faces and labels.
2. Mirror(s) – small hand mirrors or one large classroom mirror.
3. Emotion Posters – for wall display.
4. Scenario Cards – short situations to role play.
5. Soft Props – hats, toys, scarves for acting.

Teaching Materials:

1. Emotion Chart – showing basic emotions with faces and words.
2. Mini-Booklet for Students –
 - One page per emotion
 - Space to color a face and write the name.
3. Role Play Corner Kit – hats, masks, puppets for acting.
4. Emotion Wheel Game – spin to choose an emotion to act out.

Quick Assessment Sheet (End of Week):

Student Name _____

Recognizes Emotion Faces

Names Emotion Correctly

Acts Out Emotion

Shares a Personal Experience

Listens to Others

Grade 1 – Face & Feel
Student Worksheet

I. My Name: _____

II. Emotions I Learned Today:

☐ Happy ☐ Sad ☐ Angry ☐ Surprised ☐ Scared ☐ Excited

III. Match the Emotion to the Face

(Draw a line from the word to the matching face picture your teacher gives you.)

IV. Show the Face!

Draw your face for each feeling:

1. Happy 😊 – _____

2. Sad 😞 – _____

3. Angry 😡 – _____

4. Surprised 😮 – _____

5. Scared 😨 – _____

6. Excited 😄 – _____

V. Guess the Emotion Game:

When my partner made a face, I guessed: _

VI. Role Play Time:

Circle the scene you acted:

Lost my toy (Sad)

Got a gift (Happy)

Saw a spider (Scared)

Write what you said: _____

VII. Mirror Time:

I In the mirror, I made these three faces:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

VIII. Feelings Circle:

Today I shared about a time I felt: _____

IX. My Favorite Face to Make:

X. Self-Check (✓ what you did):

☐ I named the emotions.

☐ I made the faces.

☐ I acted in a role play.

☐ I shared my feelings.

☐ I listened to my friends.